FALL CONFERENCE

OCTOBER 10-11, 2024

UTAH VALLEY CONVENTION CENTER
220 WEST CENTER ST.
PROVO, UT 84601

Join planners from across Utah in Provo this October 10th and 11th for the 2024 Fall Conference, presented by APA Utah! This exciting two-day event will offer a diverse range of presentations addressing both urban and rural planning needs. Attendees can look forward to mobile tours of the Provo Airport, downtown Provo, Provo City Regional Park, BYU campus, local station areas, and Sundance Ski Resort.

We're thrilled to feature an outstanding keynote from Shane Phillips of UCLA's Lewis Center for Regional Policy Studies, who will share insights from his book The Affordable City and his research on housing. Additionally, Dave Durocher, co-founder of The Other Side Academy, will offer inspiring perspectives. Thursday will focus on collaboration between planners and developers, while Friday will spotlight potential housing solutions. Both Thursday and Friday will offer opportunities for you to fulfill the required AICP CM areas, including legal, ethics, equity, and sustainability. The APA UT Fall Conference promises engaging sessions packed with valuable content for professional planners, citizen planners, and elected officials alike. Don't miss out on this incredible opportunity!
